University of Turbat, long journey ahead

A journey of thousands miles begins with one step. In case of University of Turbat, this step was in the shape of UoB Sub Campus at Turbat.

Vice Chancellor University of Balochistan, Prof. Dr. Rasool Bakhsh Raisani and the Vice Chancellor, University of Turbat Prof. Dr. Abdul Razzaq Sabir signed handing and taking over documents related to the University of Turbat and University of Balochistan. The both VCs showed interest for future cooperation between two sister organizations. It was decided that a formal MoU will be inked soon to enhance cooperation in the field of academics, training and development, and research works.

Words from the past: Soon after the formal inauguration ceremony of university of Balochistan sub campus Turbat in 2009 by Former Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Masoom Yasinzai and Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. S. Badalkhan Baloch, the dream by the people of Makran to acquire higher education at their door steps was converted into veracity. The journey could not be ended there as the devoted employees cum the area representatives of Makran division vowed to redefine the boundaries of the University of Balochistan Campus into a separate full-fledged University as a long term goal. Because of the concerted and documented efforts of the Sub Campus staff, the goal was achieved in a period of just 3 years period. It was 28 June 2012, when the Turbat University Act was passed from the floor of Balochistan Assembly due to the tireless exertion of Ex-minister Mr. Syed Ihsan Shah and Mr. Zahoor Ahmed Buledi.

VC holds Meeting to select Members to form search committees

Soon after his selection as first Vice Chancellor of University of Turbat, Professor Dr. Abdul Razzaq Sabir paid his first official visit to Turbat. After taking the charge, worthy Vice Chancellor held an official meeting with the faculty members and other administrative staff of the University On 26th May 2013. Apart from discussing other related proceedings, the Vice Chancellor formed two search committees on immediate basis; one was the search committee for the senate and the other was for the syndicate.

Two senior lecturers of UOT - Mr. Irfan Salam Mirwani and Mr. Wasim Barkat- were selected for the senate search committee; three other lecturers were also selected for the syndicate search committee, among them were Mr. Ghulam Jan, Mr. Abdul Majid and Mr. Adeel Ahmed.

The immediate initiatives taken by the VC to involve the already available employees of the university in the decision making process indicates the eagerness of him to introduce a well documented behavioral model in the newly established UoT. Moreover, the prompt response from the lecturers and other administrative staff demonstrates the real enthusiasm required to build and develop a modern and systematic institution in this impoverished region. Such practices are the sign of teamwork and thrust for imparting quality education and development to the people of Makran.

Sports week at University of Turbat

Reported By: Abdul Majid Nasir

Apart from curricular activities, extra-curricular and sports activities are the integral part of overall students' academic development activities. These activities help the students to be educated and learn in a better way. To utilize this opportunity, the management of UoT has always engaged its students in various extra-curricular activities. Among these activities, one activity is sports week which has been conducted three times in last four years. The first year was the initial period of the university, but from the second batch, we are conducting the sports week on regular basis in the winter semester in the month of January or February of each year. In these months, the weather of Turbat is quite attractive for the sports which refreshes the students for further learning process. We offer ten to fifteen games in our sports week, generally the games like Cricket, Football, Volley Ball, Badminton, Table Tennis, Choki, Saad Kashi, Race, Carem Board, Luddo and cooking competition are involved in our sports week activities. All the students, academic, administrative and support staff actively participate in the games; separate games are arranged for the female students who also actively participate in these events.

The sports week of 2013 was conducted in the first week of February in which 12 games were offered. All the male and female students, academic staff, administrative staff and support staff actively participated in the games. The games were conducted in Knock out and league tournament forms, various departmental teams were made and competitions were conducted. The results of key games are as follows.

Cricket Winner:	BBA
Cricket Runner:	BSCS
Football Winner:	BBA
Football Runner:	BSCS
Volley Ball Winner:	Academic and Administrative Staff
Volley Ball Runner:	BBA

At the end of the sports week, a prize distribution ceremony was conducted where Administrator and other academic and administrative staff distributed the winner and runner awards to the students.

VC University of Turbat hosted a dinner to the employees

Reported By: RASHID AKRAM

Honorable V.C University of Turbat, Professor Dr. Abdul Razzaq Sabir, hosted a dinner to the employees at Usmania restaurant Quetta on 17th June, 2013. Besides the administrative and academic staff of UoT, the worthy VC of University of Balochistan, Professor Dr. Rasool Bakhsh Raisani, was also present on special invitation. This pleasant get to gather event was organized to promote interpersonal relations among employees of the University and to generate new innovative ideas from informal gatherings. Such informal but energetic gatherings often act as valuable tool to motivate and stimulate the human resource of any organization.

Furthermore, keeping in view the nature of the occasion, the VC intentionally created a gracious and friendly environment to discuss off the job matters rather than focusing on official proceedings. "Such leisure and recreational moments are the core ingredient of professional life which stimulate the overall growth and development of the employees", said the VC while addressing the participants. Moreover, the VC of University of Quetta and other participants also took part in the discussion and shared their valuable views on several topics to make the event more and more ostentatious.

After being served with appetizing and delicious dinner, the VC paid gracious recognition to all the people who had ensured their presence to attend the occasion; he also wished to look forward for the arrangement of such gatherings in near future to improve the inter organizational communication.
