The CPEC project, a reflection of Pak-China friendship, will be truly realized whatever it takes. This year we will move cargo from China to Gwadar and beyond.” General Raheel Sharif said while addressing in seminar.

Meanwhile, COAS announced a Cadet College for Gwadar.

In his welcome speech Prof. Dr. Abdul Razzaq Sabir Vice Chancellor UoT said that the institute is the only university of wide spread area of Makran Division and at CPEC route. The students of UoT and youths of Coastal Makran are second to none, they are much more talented and progressive by nature; and only recourse required is the adequate directions, guidance and opportunities for them. He anticipated that the days are not far when the students of UoT and the youth of Coastal Makran will stand shoulder to shoulder with other parts of country and would yield maximum benefits out of peace and economic dividends of progress and development of Gwadar Port, CPEC and Coastal Cities.

Lecture on Economic Backwardness in Balochistan by Prof. Dr. Buzdar

Today in Balochistan hundreds of so called ghost schools exist, hundreds of appointed teachers lack basic literacy and numeracy skills, hundreds of schools either have no teachers or no pupils attending even for short few days in a year, hundreds of thousands children, particularly in the rural areas of Balochistan are growing up without an opportunity to attend school and without any hope for a better future. This was expressed by Prof. Dr. Nek Muhammad Buzdar, California State University USA, while delivering a lecture on “Root cause of poverty and economic backwardness in Balochistan” in connection with UoT International Lecture Series organized by Department of Economics at UoT city campus.

He added that the objectives of economic growth and improved living conditions for the people of Balochistan cannot be achieved without completely overhauling the existing education system and introducing major reform programs.

He was of the opinion that the issue is not that Balochistan has been knocked down economically, the issue is whether Balochistan can get back up. “Pick yourself up, dust yourself off and start your journey again.”

He recommended to introduce free and compulsory elementary education, compensate poor parents for each child, free lunch at school, increase teacher salaries and benefits, decentralize education system, replace dishonest and incompetent teachers, create self confidence among children for the development and prosperity of Balochistan.
